LIBERALS CHOOSE VICTORIA SLATE IN LIVELY CITY RALLY

Hon. John Hart, Byron I. Johnson, Mrs. H. P. Hodges and Alderman W. T. Straith Selected as Standard-Bearers in This Riding—One Ballot and Two Acclamations Sufficient

CHEERING Liberals selected Hon. John Hart, Byron I. Johnson, Mrs. H. P. (Nancy) Hodges and Alderman W. T. Straith as their four candidates in Victoria riding at the provincial election, in a well-attended and open nominating convention held last evening at the Chamber of Commerce auditorium. The Minister of Finance and Mr. Johnson were nominated by acclamation, and Mrs. Hodges and Alderman Straith chosen decisively on a first ballot. C. H. O'Halloran, K.C., presided.

Former Alderman Alex Peden and Capt. Archie M. Aitken, the balance of six nominees placed before the meeting, dropped out on the only ballot taken, and moved at once that the choice be made unanimously. This course was followed. Of 255 registered delegates, 230 were present in person, twenty-three by proxy and two absent. Acclamations for the Minister of Finance and for Mr. Johnson came when Alderman Straith and Mrs. Hodges suggested this course. All candidates received a cordial welcome from the convention.

Proposed by C. J. McDowell and Mrs. J. S. Atkins, Hon. John Hart spoke briefly. After a tribute to his fellow candidates, he said: "This is the fifth time I have been given the nomination by the

CANADA FIFTH IN WORLD TRADE

Figures for 1936 Show Dominion Fourth in Export Commerce

OTTAWA, May 4 (P).—Canada regained fifth position among the trading nations of the world in 1936, it was announced here today by Trade Minister W. D. Elmer. With a total trade of $1,638,000,000, Canada fell in behind Great Britain, the United States, Germany and France.

It was nothing new for Canada to stand fifth among world nations, that position being occupied from 1926 to 1930 and in 1932. Canada dropped to seventh place in 1931, and eighth in 1933 and sixth in 1934 and 1935.

The feature of Canada regaining fifth position has been the increase of exports. In export trade in 1936, Canada stood fourth, ahead of France; but in total trade, France went ahead of Canada.

ORDER OF COUNTRIES
The following is the order of the first twelve countries in total trade: Great Britain, the United States, Germany, France, Canada, Japan, Belgium, Netherlands, India, South Africa, Australia and Argentina.

Canada's trade showed a greater recovery during 1936 than world trade generally. Canadian exports totaling $1,027,802,000 were 22.6 per cent higher than in 1935, while the total exports of twenty-four leading trading nations, including Canada, were $15,235,190,000, an increase of only 6 per cent.

Canadian imports totaled $635,191,000, an increase of 15 per cent over the previous year, while the total imports of the twenty-four leading nations were $17,031,515,000, an increase of 10.2 per cent over 1935.

It was the first visit to England for Premier Savage.
Crown Prince Frederick of Denmark, accompanied by Crown Princess Ingrid, arrived at Harwich to represent King Christian. They were met by Prince Arthur of Connaught and the Earl of Athlone.

Crown Prince Olaf and Princess Martha also arrived to represent the King of Norway.

Selected by the Victoria Liberal Association at an enthusiastic convention last evening, at the Chamber of Commerce Auditorium, Hon. John Hart (Minister of Finance), Byron I. Johnson, Mrs. H. P. CONVERSION LOAN OPENS

Steps Taken to Retire Last Of Canada's Tax-Free War Issues

OTTAWA, May 4 (P).—The first step toward redemption of the last of the tax-free bonds issued during the Great War will be launched tomorrow when books will be opened on a conversion loan designed to take part of the $236,299,800 of 5 1/2 per cent Victory Loan bonds maturing December 1, 1937.

Details of the loan were completed at today's Cabinet Council and made public by Hon. J. L. Isley, Minister of National Revenue and Acting Minister of Finance.

OPPORTUNITY TO CONVERT
Opportunity is given holders of the Victory Bonds to convert into two-year 1 per cent bonds priced to yield 1.38 per cent; five-year 2 per cent bonds priced to yield about 2.375 per cent, both non-callable, and twelve-year 3 1/2 per cent bonds priced to yield 3.35 per cent, callable at par on and after June 1, 1946.

The maturing Victory Loan bonds, with final coupons due on December 1, will be valued at 102.25 per cent and the resulting cash adjustment in favor of each conversion applicant will be made on June 1, 1937, when interim certificates of the new issue will be exchanged for bonds of the old issue.

LISTS OPEN
The conversion lists will open tomorrow and will close as to any or all maturities at the discretion of the acting Minister of Finance.

In the period 1915-1919 bond issues aggregating approximately $2,000,000,000 were made, all of which, with the exception of the 5 1/2 per cent Victory Loan bonds maturing on December 1, have been refunded at lower interest rates with a very large saving to the Dominion Treasury. The present offering is expected to result in a further substantial saving, by way of both a reduction of interest charges and an increase in income tax revenues.

Spectacular Display Seen In Heavens
Bright flashes of light in long pointed streamers, "the northern lights" filled the sky last evening and were clearly seen by many residents around Victoria.

Harold Ockenden, 457 Dockyard Road, Esquimalt, saw the lights for some time from his back porch, and H. W. Curtis, 1617 Camosun Street, off Fernwood Road, also saw them from his residence.

The agreement provides for the extension of most-favored-nation treatment in tariff matters by each country to the products of the other for a period of one year, but will remain in force thereafter until denounced on six months' notice being given by either party.

Police of Palestine Unearth Retreat of Modern Smugglers
Jaffa, Palestine, May 4 (P).—An amazing story of a secret radio station, death in an orange grove, vanishing witnesses and secret societies led police today to conclude they had unearthed an international syndicate for smuggling arms.

Central figure in the fantastic story is Reuben Schenavit, who once sold arms in South America for the late Sir Basil Zaharoff, Europe's munitions merchant.

Police charge the actual slayer was Abdul Khader, an Arab employed by Schenavit and in jail here.

ADMITS KILLING
The Arab has admitted killing the Russian and alleged Schenavit ordered him to do so, detectives working with British Intelligence officers said.

Police investigation began with the disappearance of Zwanger on the night of March 10. Seventeen days later the Russian's body was found in a sandy grave, knifed and bludgeoned, in an orange grove near Schenavit's closely-guarded home in Ramat-Gan, a Jewish colony.

Dr. Patterson urged supporters of the C.C.F., the Social Credit group and other parties to join with the Conservatives in opposing the Liberal Government at the polls.

TRADE AGREEMENT MADE WITH HAITI

New Canadian Accord Extends Most-Favored-Nation Treatment in Tariff Matters

OTTAWA, May 4 (P).—A commercial agreement between Canada and Haiti giving most-favored-nation treatment in tariff matters has been signed, Hon. W. D. Elmer, Minister of Trade and Commerce, announced today. The pact was signed on April 23 on behalf of Canada by the British minister at Port-au-Prince, Haiti.

The agreement provides for the extension of most-favored-nation treatment in tariff matters by each country to the products of the other for a period of one year, but will remain in force thereafter until denounced on six months' notice being given by either party.

DRAW THE BONDS OF UNION CLOSER
Mussolini and Von Neurath Effect Accord to Strengthen Agreement for Friendship

ROME, May 4 (P).—Italy and Germany agreed tonight to stand together on Europe's main problems. Premier Mussolini and Baron von Neurath, German Foreign Minister, effected the accord to strengthen their friendship agreement of last Fall, highly informed sources said—a main point presumably was continuation of their common opposition to Bolshevism.

Another point apparently decided upon was that the Spanish civil war should be soft-pedaled in Italian-German pronouncements.

PUTS POSER TO LEGAL PUNDITS

Phrasing of De Valera's New Constitution for Ireland Leaves Puzzle

LONDON, May 4 (P).—In drawing up the new constitution of Ireland, President Eamon de Valera of the Irish Free State left a poser for pundits in constitutional law. Experts have meticulously examined the constitution in all its sixty-three articles, but nobody apparently is able to say what exactly will be the position of Eire in regard to the British Commonwealth when the new constitution finally becomes effective.

COMING UNDER REVIEW
Although Irish Free State delegates will not attend the Imperial Conference, the position of the Free State in the British Commonwealth of Nations will come under review when the conference reaches "constitutional questions," which are listed second in the agenda.

The first article of the present Free State constitution describes the Free State as a "co-equal member of the community of nations forming the British Commonwealth of Nations."

Article I of the new constitution makes no reference to the British Commonwealth. It affirms the "inalienable, indefeasible, sovereign right" of the Irish nation to choose its own Government.

Millions Are Told The Right Time by "Tim" on Phone

LONDON, May 4 (P).—Plans for a ceremony marking the 10,000,000th call to "Tim," London's speaking clock, were abandoned when calculations indicated the call would be made on Coronation Day. Every week 280,000 persons ask "Tim" the time.

CANADA CLUB HAS BANQUET

Four Hundred Canadian Visitors Dine in London With Influential British

LONDON, May 4 (P).—A quorum of the Canadian Club gathered in London tonight, but passed nothing over the council table but-salt.

The table was the Coronation banquet of the Canada Club, an impressive assembly at the Savoy Hotel, with 400 ranking Canadian visitors to the Coronation and the Imperial Conference dining with influential British figures, official, commercial, professional and diplomatic.

THE GUEST OF HONOR

Prime Minister Mackenzie King was the guest of honor, with Viscount Greenwood, a native of Canada, chairman.

The meeting sent greetings to the King and received an answer of thanks within an hour.

Prime Minister King stressed the national character of Canada's representation at the Coronation as significant of Canadian sentiment toward the Coronation.

It was most significant, he said, that the Coronation would take place alongside the Imperial Conference, thus giving evidence of the sentimental, traditional, economic and practical union of the Empire, enduring in the face of a changing world.

KEEPS INDEPENDENCE

Yet Canada maintained its independence, freedom and individuality the greatest sign of which is "that we recommend the appointment of our own Governor-General."

Hon. Vincent Massey, Canadian High Commissioner, proposed the toast to guests, emphasizing the breadth of the Canadian representation, which was from eight of the nine provinces "and wild horses wouldn't draw from me the name of the unrepresented one."

Malcolm Macdonald responded. He was thrilled by the Canadian representation—particularly since so much of it was Canadian—as it

FIRE SITUATION REACHES CRISIS

Settlers' Homes Destroyed in Breton Area—Buffalo Reserve Threatened

EDMONTON, Alta., May 4 (P).—Fearing destruction of Elk Island Park buffalo reserve, thirty-five miles northeast of Edmonton, a forest fire that advanced into the south end of the park today, B. I. Love, superintendent of the park, sent a distress call to Royal Canadian Mounted Police at Lamont, asking that all available men be ordered out to fight the blaze.

Several carloads of volunteer fire fighters left for the threatened area.

HOMES WIPED OUT
Meantime, the situation around Breton was reported as "critical." Seven or eight settlers' homes in the area have been destroyed by the rapidly-advancing flames. It is believed that several more homes, not reported, also have been wiped out.

The fire, blazing along a fifteen-mile front near Breton, advanced four miles today. Whipped by a high gale, the flames leapt over the tops of the trees to prevent any chance of keeping the fire in check.

So far, the flames have been kept from the towns, but hope of checking the blaze southwest of Breton has been abandoned.

KILLED ON SPUR LINE
EDMONTON, May 4 (P).—Charles P. Brown, fifty-six, Canadian National Railways yard foreman, was killed tonight when he fell beneath a box car being shunted on a spur line. Mrs. Wesley White, Vancouver, and Mrs. Vera Schortler, Leader, Sask., and Miss M. E. Brown, Calgary, are daughters.

WORKED ON BARGE
Both youths were unharmed and worked on the Canadian National Railways Barge No. 109. Bradley was a checker and Cooper a deck-hand. Little is known of Bradley, except that he recently came to the Coast from the Prairies.

Residents in the vicinity of the tragedy heard no cries for help, nor did they see the victims in difficulties. At an inquiry held in Duncan last evening, Dr. George More pronounced that Cooper came to his death by drowning.

Constant Rose announced an exhaustive search of the Saanich Inlet shoreline would be resumed this morning.

Five Men in Hospital After Battle With Crowd in Hollywood Office

HOLLYWOOD, Cal., May 4 (P).—A crowd of thirty men today invaded the office of the International Alliance of Theatrical and Stage Employees and beat several men seeking studio employment, sending five of them to hospital.

At Universal studios, John Kline, non-striking worker, was set upon by men whom he identified to police as pickets and was sent to a hospital, critically injured.

At the Hollywood Receiving Hospital, where the five victims of the attack on the union offices were taken, it was found one of them suffered two broken arms, another a broken ankle and a third a possible broken wrist. The other two received cuts and bruises.

BILBAO, Spain, May 4 (P).—The Basques struck back at their besiegers today in a smashing offensive, and tonight their commanders asserted much of the pressure of the insurgent ring of steel around Bilbao had been relieved.

A fiery unit of Basque militiamen, or "guardias," tightened a trap around enemy forces cut off at Bermeo, on the Bay of Biscay coast; while a second column of the defending army drove southeastward along the Durango road to capture important strategic positions.

ANARCHISTS LEAD REVOLT

Catalan Government Forced To Withdraw Troops From Front to Quell Uprising

(Copyright, 1937, by Hays News Agency)
PERPIGNAN, France, May 4 (P).—A major anarchist revolt against Catalonia's regime, with 100 dead and scores wounded in the capital city of Barcelona, was reported tonight from across the Spanish border. The Catalan Government supports the Spanish Central Government.

With President Luis Companys said to be stripping his front-line troops to bring troops into the capital to quell the extremists, latest information indicated his assault guards had driven the anarchists from Barcelona's centre into the outskirts.

Communications with the outside world were cut and tanks lumbered through the capital.

SITUATION SOON REVERSED
The situation tonight appeared to be reversal of that prevailing earlier today, when armed anarchists were reported barricaded in Barcelona's central telephone exchange and driving Companys' troops into the suburbs under threat of using hand grenades and revolvers against them.

With tank squadrons and machine guns posted, however, the Government apparently took command later.

The anarchists staged their coup, advised said, after the Valencia Central Government ordered the semi-autonomous Barcelona regime to name a general in supreme command of Catalan military forces. An appointment was made, but the anarchists refused to accept it.

Boy Scout Makes A Double Rescue
AMHERST, N.S., May 4 (P).—A thirteen-year-old Boy Scout was hailed today for saving two small children from death beneath the wheels of a speeding train. A passer-by told the story.

Lloyd Weatherbee saw two small children on the railway track near here. At the same time he heard an express train whistle. He pushed one child off the tracks in one direction and lifted the other safely on the opposite side as the train approached.

King "Crowned" Four Times Rehearsing at Westminster Abbey
LONDON, May 4 (P).—King George VI was crowned four times today in rehearsal of the Coronation a week from tomorrow. After participating in the centuries-old rite of accepting the baton of a Field Marshal, the sovereign, accompanied by Queen Elizabeth, paid a surprise visit to Westminster Abbey.

Wearing a royal robe over ordinary street clothes, the King rehearsed for two hours with the Archbishop of Canterbury, Queen Elizabeth also wore a royal robe of crimson velvet and ermine. But as her own crowning was not rehearsed, she spent most of the time watching.

Their audience was a group of workmen in overalls and shirt sleeves. The King was laughing and joking before and after, but while the actual rehearsal was on he was solemn and serious, "one of them said."

The Archbishop of Canterbury, accompanied by the clergymen who will assist in the real ceremonies, placed the dummy crown on George's brow until they had the procedure letter perfect.

Dummy sceptres, a dummy orb and dummy swords of state all played their part.

Seven fully-uniformed field marshals attended the ceremonial at Buckingham Palace in which the King received his baton.

As every monarch since Charles II has done, His Majesty then presented colors to the King's Company of "The Grenadier" Guards, and watched as the 100 six-footers paraded on the Buckingham Palace lawns.

onah, secret Jewish Self-Defence Society. The society was so organized that each member knew only his immediate superior, and none of his fellow members.

RAPID DEVELOPMENT

Police believed the man was slain because he knew of operations by a foreign espionage service. Quickly the Royal Air Force Intelligence Service took charge of investigation. These developments tumbled one upon the other.

Both Zwanger and Schenavit had worked in the Argentine. Both came here ten years ago. Schenavit's house contained a powerful, unlicensed radio, a dozen microphones and dictographs hidden behind pictures and mirrors. Police had to look four days to find them. Schenavit explained he was a radio fan and installed the extra equipment to amuse his guests.

UNDERGROUND HORROR

The house had an underground chamber and in it was found a blood-stained sledge hammer. A secret tunnel from this chamber led to within 400 yards of the orange grove where Zwanger's body was found.

Zwanger possessed plans for both the tunnel and the radio equipment at his own home in Tel Aviv. A radio engineer who had been associated with Schenavit burned

Is Not in Accord With New Tax Rate Adopted for 1937

DISSATISFACTION with the City Council's action striking a tax rate of 43 1/4 mills was expressed in a letter from D. A. Macdonald, city comptroller and treasurer, read at the council meeting yesterday afternoon. The missive was received and filed.

Following is Mr. Macdonald's letter: "I wish to put myself on record as being not in accord with the decision of the council in striking a tax rate of 43 1/4 mills. I consider that the council should do everything in its power to strike a rate which will not require to be increased for years to come. With the first payment of principal under the Fortin refunding plan amounting to $158,000 falling due in 1940, I am of the opinion that a rate of not less than 44 mills should be levied now, so that there should be no danger of having to raise the rate later."

Says Court Charge May Be Reduced

When the case of Thomas McLay, charged with manslaughter, was called in the city police yesterday, C. L. Harrison asked for a remand to enable him to peruse the evidence taken at the inquest on Monday.

He said that there was a possibility that the charge might be reduced to one of having failed to return to the scene of an accident. The manslaughter charge followed the death of L. P. Burbridge at the corner of Fort and Vancouver Streets on Wednesday night last. Magistrate H. C. Hall consented to a remand until this morning, when counsel could speak to a longer remand if desired. With such a serious charge hanging over the accused, the court did not wish to fix a peremptory date for hearing until all were satisfied.

ALDERMAN EDWARD WILLIAMS

"Nothing spectacular to report, but a tremendous amount of work has been done." This was the keynote of the report presented last night by the retiring executive of the Victoria Builders' Exchange at the annual banquet of that body in Spencer's dining-room. Most of the officers were returned for the ensuing year.

Alderman Edward Williams was re-elected president and J. N. Anderson vice-president. W. J. Hamilton is again secretary-treasurer. The following were named to head the various committees: Electrical, H. J. Langdon; flooring, A. Davies; millwork, R. W. Hurst; painting, A. Tripp; plasterers, A. R. Prewing; plumbing, W. R. Menzies, and sheet metals, I. McCallum.

SATISFACTORY YEAR

The brief presidential report was presented by Mr. Anderson. He said that despite some "abortive" attempts to further big projects such as the new Federal building and extensions to the postoffice, the Builders' Exchange had had a satisfactory year, and had every prospect of being increasingly busy in the ensuing year.

J. O. Cameron described "the birth and growth of the lumber industry" on the Pacific Coast, and prophesied that, unless conditions changed drastically or labor costs are unreasonably increased, the lumber trade would enjoy fair prosperity for years to come.

MAPLE BAY ROAD, DUNCAN, MAY 1, 1937.

TO THE ELECTORS, COWICHAN-NEWCASTLE CONSTITUENCY,

Dear Sir or Madam:

I have the honor to appeal to you for your franchise at the forthcoming election.

Realizing, as I do, that UNITY IS STRENGTH, in contradistinction to an INDEPENDENT platform, I am a staunch supporter of the Conservative platform as laid down by the new leader of the party, Dr. Frank P. Patterson.

There are, however, one or two issues of special importance to the Island and this constituency I would like to touch on, namely: the better welfare of the agricultural community than provided for by the Marketing Board; better terms for Vancouver Island; and last, but not least, the reforestation of logged-off timber lands.

I hereby pledge myself to concentrate on these issues, and appeal to you for your help and guidance.

A word to the voters outside the city and municipal areas within the constituency. I can see that they have a real grievance in the condition of their roads. If elected, I will make it my duty to follow closely all estimates for road work in detail at the time they are before the House, and also make it my business to see that the work is carried out in accordance therewith, and I will endeavor to check the prevalent discrimination practised in recent years in the selection of labor employed in connection with road work and the obvious wastage connected therewith, whether the management of the work is in the hands of a Road Commission or the Public Works Department.

Yours faithfully,

C. F. DEYKIN.

pect of being increasingly busy in the ensuing year.

J. O. Cameron described "the birth and growth of the lumber industry" on the Pacific Coast, and prophesied that, unless conditions changed drastically or labor costs are unreasonably increased, the lumber trade would enjoy fair prosperity for years to come.

BUILDING LOANS

Lieut.-Colonel Brooke Stephenson, in a brilliant and rapid-fire talk, explained the incidence and the advantages of the Dominion Housing Act and the Home Improvement Plan. He said that the new Federal legislation afforded opportunities for building loans at low interest rates and easy monthly payments, making it possible for citizens with small but regular incomes to improve their residential property or to acquire a home of their own.

He thought that many more would avail themselves of these facilities if they knew about them, and urged wider advertisement of the Dominion Government's housing plans. He praised Hon. Dr. S. F. Tolmie, M.P., and Byron Johnson for the assistance they had given in connection with the legislation.

J. McCandless, secretary of the Plasterers' Union, which will be incorporated within the next week or so, spoke briefly of the aims and objects of his association.

MAYOR McGAVIN

Mayor Andrew McGavin told the organization of the action of the City Council in reducing the mill rate this year, and thereby creating considerable saving to taxpayers. He said he had found it necessary to stubbornly oppose all tendencies to loose expenditure. He paid tribute to the good work done by the City Council, and defended his appointment of committee chairmen.

Civic Employees Ask For Appointment of An Arbitration Unit

Federation Requests City Council to Petition Legislature for Change in Municipal Act—Gloves May Replace Present Arc Lighting System

CIVIC Employees' Federation of Greater Victoria requested the City Council yesterday afternoon to apply at the next session of the Legislature for an amendment to the Municipal Act to provide for appointment of a board of arbitration to consider and settle any dispute between the council and its employees, or any group of employees. The Federation has arbitration on the salary question in view.

On motion of Alderman W. T. Straith, seconded by Alderman W. Lloyd Morgan, the matter was referred to the legislative committee and the city solicitor for report.

A motion of the electric light committee to instruct the city purchasing agent to call for tenders for a new lighting system for city streets was passed. Alderman T. W. Hawkins explained it was planned to replace arc lights with powerful electric globes, and the saving made between this year and 1939 would pay for such an entire installation.

UNITY OF FEELING
Hon. Ernest Lapointe, Minister of Justice, testified to the unity of Canadian feeling in honoring the "loyalty and public service" of England, which Canada was endeavoring to follow, although maintaining its freedom of thought.

"A free and strong Canada will never be an obstacle to the Empire," Mr. Lapointe added. "On the contrary, it is an assurance of its maintenance." And, because Canada followed English principles, "the queer doctrines of the bad boys of the world at this time will never get any footing on Canadian soil."

VANCOUVER, May 4 (C)—Struck in the thigh by a bullet from a police revolver, a man who gave his name as Harry Ives, of Winnipeg, was taken to hospital tonight after a police officer was attacked by a pair of suspects whom he attempted to question.

Mrs. R. Baxter reported she had seen two men hide a watch under a wooden sidewalk near her home in the East End district. Constable Fraser-Dunlop went to the vicinity and saw two men take an object from under the walk. The officer hailed the pair and was about to question them when they attacked him. After beating Dunlop to the ground and hitting him several times, they attempted to flee. Dunlop drew his revolver and when his command to halt went unheeded, he fired one shot into the

CANADIANS AND THEIR INDUSTRIES . . . AND THEIR BANK

CANADA'S TRADE WITH THE WORLD

In the last calendar year Canada had a foreign trade amounting to $1,663,093,000, an increase of 19.7%, as compared with an average of 8.1% for 24 leading countries. In this exchange the Dominion had a favourable balance (including exportation of gold as a commodity) of $393,000,000.

Another feature of international trade was the tourist business, incoming and outgoing, totalling $355,568,000, the balance in Canada's favour being $155,958,000.

With the figures for tourist trade added to those for ordinary commerce, our international trade rose to $2,018,661,000, with a total balance in Canada's favour of more than half a billion dollars.

Banking plays a vital part in the upbuilding of the foreign trade of Canada, and foreign trade is the backbone of the native industries which are the foundation of Canada's economic structure.

In providing financial service for this enormous trade a leading part is played by the Bank of Montreal, which, with its 500 branches throughout Canada, its own offices in financial centres abroad, and its own banking correspondents throughout the world, carries through promptly and smoothly the task of financing the movements of an infinite variety of commodities.

The Bank's services include: Loans to importers and exporters; purchases of bills of exchange representing exports; providing commercial credits for purchases abroad; purchase and sale of exchange "futures" for protection against price fluctuation in foreign currencies; special wire facilities with the important exchange markets to speed transactions; reports of character and standing of foreign firms; commercial accounts; foreign currency accounts; safekeeping of securities.

CONSERVATIVE CANDIDATES

The Victoria Conservative Association has nominated a strong and popular slate of candidates to contest the Provincial election on June 1. This constituency has been, ever since party government was introduced in the Province, a Conservative stronghold on most occasions for upwards of thirty years. In the last Provincial election no Conservative candidates were nominated by that party, which withdrew from the campaign throughout the Province. Now there is a resurrected Conservative organization under the leadership of Dr. Frank Patterson, and it bids fair to be a powerful element once again in the politics of British Columbia.

Heading the Conservative ticket here is Mr. Herbert Anson, an Independent Member of the last Legislature, a former Mayor of the City and well known in its business life. He is deservedly popular in all ranks of civic life, is well known in many parts of the Province, and proved himself an able and energetic member during the life of the late Legislature. Mr. Anson has vision. He has made a close study of the finances of the Province and of other problems, the careful handling of which is essential to the welfare of British Columbia. He is an energetic campaigner, with a likeable and forceful personality, one who deserves well of the electors of Victoria, for he has already served them wholeheartedly in civic and Provincial politics.

Dr. J. D. Hunter is so widely known in this constituency that it is almost superfluous to point out the position of popularity he enjoys. A native son, he is essentially a man of Victoria, and during his career he has gathered around him an ever-increasing number of friends. This has been illustrated in the increasing support he has won at the municipal polls from those who know him, and from so many others who admire his course as an alderman. Personally, Dr. Hunter has a wide following that will rally to him enthusiastically in the coming election. He will prove a strong candidate, and his advent to Provincial politics will be an asset to the Conservative Party.

Mr. Bruce A. McKelvie has been so much before Victorians during several years past that he needs no introduction to the voters. Author, particularly as an historian, journalist and public speaker, he has acquitted himself successfully in every role he has essayed. He has an extensive and varied knowledge, not only of the history of British Columbia, but also in relation to its diversified problems, and a vision as to how these may be solved for the advantage of the people. His journalistic experience will stand him in good stead in political life, for he has built up a reservoir of information—political, economic, social and financial—upon which he can draw at will. Mr. McKelvie was associated with the editorial conduct of The Colonist for the past seven years, and this newspaper can speak in the highest terms of his abilities, the wide range of the information he possesses and his enthusiastic desire to do what is best for the development of the Province of which he is a native son.

Victoria's fourth Conservative candidate is Mr. Frederick A. Willis, who has identified himself in an active way with the fortunes of the party here for many years past. He is earnest, painstaking and conscientious in everything he undertakes, and over a long period has made a close study of Provincial politics. The soundness of his characteristics will make an undoubted appeal from the public platform. Mr. Willis, too, is a staunch advocate of a reduction in the cost of Provincial government, and it may well be hoped that during the campaign he will stress this necessity, which is such a grave one in the problem of administration. His entry to active politics, there is little doubt, is due to a wholehearted conviction that the knowledge he has acquired and the policies he espouses can be of service to the welfare of British Columbia.

AN AMERICAN TRIBUTE

In some far distant future, when historians are tracing out in chronological order the series of events that produced the American Declaration of Independence and the further history of the United States from then till now, they are likely to become a little puzzled when they come to deal with the events of the present year of grace. Two thousand years hence, when time has obliterated some of the records and overthrown the temples, palaces and piles stupendous which are our pride today, historians may possibly disagree among themselves as to the exact date of the Declaration of Independence. One school of historical investigators will be able, perhaps, to produce some fragments of rare copies of American newspapers printed in April and May, 1937, in support of the contention that at that date the American people still formed an integral part of the British Empire. They will endeavor to show from these ancient documents that when King George the Sixth was crowned on May 12, 1937, the interest exhibited in that event by the Americans was apparently as deep and widespread as it was in Canada, or Australia, or the Motherland itself; that for months it was a general topic of conversation from Maine to California; that newspapers and magazines were full of it; that Americans in their thousands eagerly crossed the sea, to participate in the celebration, and that, broadly speaking, the inhabitants of North America south of the forty-ninth parallel hailed the event of the Coronation with as much enthusiasm as those living north of that line—all of these circumstances bearing out the idea that at the moment the two peoples were still politically one. Candidates for advanced degrees in American universities two thousand years hence may write learned treatises under such titles as "Historic Doubts Concerning 1776."

The Christian Science Monitor of April 22 is in six sections, comprising seventy-two pages, of which sixty-four are devoted to the Coronation. There are pictures of the new Sovereign and of the outstanding members of the Royal Family, pictures of state dignitaries and churchmen, statesmen of the Motherland and of the Dominions, and accredited representatives of foreign nations. There are representations of scenes in various parts of the Empire, ancient castles, royal processions, solemn ceremonies. There are literally scores of articles contributed by expert commentators upon a great variety of subjects connected with the Kingship, the Constitution, the Law, the ancient racial and national traditions. Inter-Imperial relations and problems are treated in great detail and apparently with as much sympathy and appreciation as if the United States were still part of the Empire. The Monitor prints an autograph letter from Mr. Roosevelt congratulating that journal upon its enterprise in publishing this splendid issue. He expresses appreciation of the "constructive service" which The Monitor has consistently rendered in promoting international amity. He says it is a simple statement of fact, and one that cannot too often be affirmed, that the United States and Great Britain have one great common concern, the preservation of the peace of the world. He concludes by speaking of the encouragement afforded him by the persevering devotion of a great newspaper like The Monitor to its ideal of enlarging the understanding between the English-speaking peoples, "on this historic occasion."

Along with this comprehensive number of The Monitor is included an eight-page Coronation color section of a design, execution, and quality that would require the skill of an artist to describe. It may appropriately be added that among the occasional straws which show which way the wind blows, the casual observer of the American scene can hardly fail to note the habit among Americans of speaking of "the King" as if the term were as familiar and necessary a part of their political vocabulary as "the President."

PROPHETS OF WOE

The study of psychology and the statistics that are evolved through its research work appear to induce a state of morbidity among those who dabble in a science that is experimental to the last degree. One of the ilk, Dr. R. B. Cattell, of England, has been investigating the connection between intelligence and size of family in "one typical industrial city and one unspoiled rural area" in England. He finds that there are more than half as many children again in families of unusually low intelligence as in families of unusually high intelligence. Psychologists have a habit of reaching conclusions, which are given out oracularly, therefore Dr. Cattell says that within thirty years there will be a twenty-four per cent increase in mental deficiency and a thirty-five per cent decrease in the number of "gifted children of a secondary school type."

Psychologists keep on predicting that the British people will become fewer in numbers, older in years and poorer in quality. Despite this, population is not standing still but is increasing. There may be more older people, but then medical discoveries and improving sanitation have increased the expectation of life. The great advancements being made in scientific development do not indicate a poorer quality of the race. The chief thing is that the dire forebodings of the psychologists never come true. There are few if any sciences which have failed so ignominiously in their development as that of psychology, chiefly because its proponents have endeavored to probe depths beyond their limit. They are at best dealing with intangibles.

A SONNET

Much have I mused; if life and love were one,
How blest were love, how beautiful were life;
Which now so oft are alien or at strife,
Though each in bitter waste make secret moan
Of lamentation, knowing well its own,
Each needing each, yet evermore apart.
Here—saddest of the twin—the yearning heart,
And there—the barren life. Ah! thus alone
Existence empty of its chief delight.
Creeps dull and shallow to the weary close;
And like some plant shut up in rayless night—
Love pales and pines, that in the Summer's sun
Of life had flourished like a garden rose.
Would God that ever love and life were one!
—John Godfrey Saxe.

Note and Comment

By Sandham Graves

It seems to be apparent that the Coronation and an eight-letter word, which shall not be named here, are going to conflict in British Columbia this month. For instance, when workmen decorate the Legislative Buildings, and they have started on it now, it should be distinctly understood that this is for the Coronation. On the Postoffice yesterday two very large posters were displayed, one at the north corner and the other at the south, on Government Street, and for a moment I thought this was an announcement of candidates at the polls; but, no, they are posters of Their Majesties. Even the lithographer seems to have been confused, because in one poster a replica of the King stands on the right of the Queen, and in the other he stands on the left. From there, in time, no doubt, the eye will be led quickly to a poster with the slogan: "Vote for Blank!" Farther up town there are now large signs with Coronation messages. Unless some action is taken to straighten out this confusion, the election will be going to the polls to vote for Their Majesties, and that will be quite superfluous as Their Majesties have already received an acclamation at the hands of the Empire. On the radio it is all going to be much worse. There will be parts of a programme from London, and a few kind words from the campaigning candidate for Blank. There will be cheers for the Royal Household, and cheers for the candidate for Double-Blank. There will be a holiday in the schools for the Coronation, and a holiday in the Legislative Buildings for polling. On June 1, I am convinced most of the electors will go to the polls to ballot on a plebiscite as to whether or not the decorations were truly representative of bill posters who were in good health at the time of the Coronation.

Scientists have discovered two new spots on the sun, each supposed to represent a storm area at least 125,000 miles in diameter. That may or may not account for floods in Ontario, and for what happened to a Kansas city man last week. The man had just stepped up to the door of his garage at home, with the key out ready to insert in the lock, when "the garage trembled violently, then soared into the air and crashed against a nearby barn," according to news dispatches. His car was left standing unharmed on the floor of the garage, as a windstorm that lifted the garage passed as suddenly as it had come. The man was not seriously hurt, beyond a bruised leg suffered when the building kicked him as suddenly it floated away.

At the Bronx Zoo, in New York, a woman put her hand through the bars of a sea lion's cage. The sea lion bit two of her fingers so badly that she required surgical attention. Never put a sea lion, especially when there are spots on the sun. In a Mid-Western State at about the same time a householder drove out to her Summer cottage at a lakeside resort only to discover that a family of ducks had wintered cozily in the best armchair of the cottage. She evicted them; but I wouldn't have. I should have led them quietly to the kitchen and coaxed them to try a turn or two in the oven.

At Petersburg, Indiana, house-holders reported they had been severely scratched by a pet cat, when they tried to paddle a three-year-old son for disobedience. First the mother and then the father was attacked by the cat. The small son escaped a spanking. Cat-lovers will say this was affection displayed by the cat for the small son. I think, however, that cat had nerves and therefore constitutional objections to yowlings. At that, they should have paddled the cat, or at least have put water in its milk for supper.

Not even sun-spots will account for the decision of citizens in an Idaho stock town to kill off all the golden eagles within range of their golden eagles. The drive lasted for a month or six weeks, and scores of eagles were killed. Along about the end of that time it was discovered that the eagles had been keeping down the mice, rats, weasels and other rodent pests, which, when freed of their hereditary enemies, multiplied far too fast. So the eagles were relieved, and now the good people of that town are trying to assist the birds in killing off the rodents. It is another instance of the age-old fallacy that man cannot interfere with impunity in the arrangements of a universe he did not make, and could in no wise duplicate. Man, the tinkerer, will keep on poking holes in his own cooking utensils until the end of time. It is only the excuses he invents for doing so that vary, and there is, so help me, a certain sameness about those. Meddling is the same in all languages: a disease of the brain, coupled with illusions of grandeur!

The new tenth green at the Uplands will be officially opened on Coronation Day. Captain Harold Brynjolfsson informs me. The celebrating will be done after the "nineteenth" hole.

Dazzling but Smart
We predict a generation of dark-glass wearers in the city of Victoria if the present epidemic of "White surface finished" buildings continues—of course it won't, but it just gives us something to kick about. We pass two of these modernistically finished structures while sauntering to work, and find the powerful glare of the sun on the white surface fairly dazzles the eyes. However, there is no doubt about their smart appearance, so we'll just put the old hat down over our face and bear it!

Canon Cody

There are many men who have achieved distinction, but few have achieved it more than Canon Cody, president of the University of Toronto. In his teens he won many scholarships. He is a Doctor of Laws and a Doctor of Divinity. For thirty-three years the Canon was rector of St. Paul's Church in Toronto, and during those years he found time to aid in founding Ridley College, St. Catherine's, for boys, and Haverall College Toronto, for girls; to sit on two Royal Commissions; to take his place as a member of the Legislature of Ontario, and to act for a short while as Minister of Education for the province. He was named Bishop of Halifax and again Archbishop of Melbourne (Australia). The Canon refused both positions. He preached before His Late Majesty King George and Queen Mary in Buckingham Palace in 1922 and in the Cathedral at Geneva in connection with the League of Nations Assembly in 1926. Further, he holds the rank of Lieutenant-colonel in the Canadian Militia and is honorary chaplain of the Queen's Own Rifles. He is a keen Rotarian, a yachtsman of more than ordinary ability, and as president of the University of Toronto, second largest university in the British Empire, takes a deep pride in the institution from which so many other Canadian universities have sprung, and its fine history.

Aubrey on the Alert

Aubrey, who keeps his weather eye peeled for odds and ends, reports the following sign in a dairy lunch: "Ham Sandwiches, Five Cents; With Ham, Ten Cents; Bread, Five Cents Extra." Later on he discovered a service station on Quadra Street with a sign outside: "Come on in. We Ain't Mad at You." Last time our tobacconist friend took a holiday we received a postcard from Seattle, bearing the words: "Having a good time. Wish I could afford it." Broad Street Bertie tried to tell us fortune tellers live on the top of the land. Then Bill, the Broad Street barber, remarked that the wolf at the door if often only the growls of the landlord. He should know. We take off our hat to Commander "Len," who operates an Old English Inn at Qualicum Beach. The commander had an opportunity of retiring in England or remaining on Vancouver Island. It did not take him long to make up his mind to purchase an inn and invest his life's savings in the Island's future. We know that his confidence will not be misplaced. Several complaints reached us about a slight tinge in the Sooke Lake water supplied Oak Bay. The city engineer explained that gardens are now being watered, and the increased amount of water flowing in the mains resulted in the dislodging of rust that accumulated during the winter. He believed the discoloration would not last long.

Glancing Over Sport

Veteran Bernie Schwengers showed the way to a field of youngsters and other veterans Sunday at the Colwood golf links by winning the qualifying-round honors with a steady 75—Bernie was one of the best athletes in Canada thirty years ago or more. He was on Canada's Davis Cup team and starred at soccer, rugby, grass hockey, baseball, cricket, basketball, track and field. Bernie was "tops" in every branch of sport he took up—Victoria fans who saw some of the recent Canadian basketball games in Vancouver told me that the Dominos could have beaten both clubs the same night. Varsity won the title, but they were far from the club which trounced the Dominos to three straight in the British Columbia final. 75,000 fans will watch the running of the Kentucky

Derby at Churchill Downs next Saturday. I believe Military will head the field, despite the strong opposition from the best three-year-olds in the country. The new tenth green at the Uplands will be officially opened on Coronation Day. Captain Harold Brynjolfsson informs me. The celebrating will be done after the "nineteenth" hole.

FINE PLANS FOR INDIAN REGATTA

Cowichan Natives Will Hold Interesting Programs of Sports Next Sunday

Arrangements have been completed for the annual Indian regatta at Cowichan Bay next Sunday. Upon this occasion the Indians are planning to make the event one long to be remembered, as a feature of the Coronation celebrations. The feature of the day will be the championship race for big war canoes, an event that attracts more than usual interest. This premier inter-tribal contest has already gathered a number of entries from different parts of the British Columbia Coast and there is every promise that it will be one of the most thrilling regatta spectacles ever witnessed. In addition other interesting features of the regatta will be a canoe hurdle race, single paddle canoe event, tip-over race and double-paddle canoe race. Father X. Lauzon is managing the affair, which guarantees that it will be put on in a businesslike and sportsmanlike manner. The regatta last year was an outstanding success and the plans arranged for this year contemplate an even more attractive and interesting demonstration of native sports.

JUBILEE CONCERT WILL HONOR GEORGE J. DYKE

The committee of the celebration event—the Golden Jubilee concert—to be given on May 19 in honor of George J. Dyke—wishes to make the further announcement that the programmes will be issued this week. Those to take part are Barbara Custance, pianist, Vancouver; Mrs. F. Aldous, contralto; Catherine Craig, dramatist; Mrs. Clifford Ward, accompanist; and Mr. Dyke's string orchestra of thirty players. Indications point to a large audience, a fact which in itself is a tribute to one who has accomplished much in behalf of the city's musical life.

SPRING GARDEN WEEK

Six—Hundreds of visitors from across the border have been visiting Victoria during the Spring Garden Week just concluded. Their visit was arranged jointly by the Vancouver Island Horticultural Association, and Mrs. J. C. Cash, president of the Empress Hotel. It climaxed in the Spring Flower Show, which was one of the most successful in recent years. Every visitor was most favorably impressed with the charm of our gardens and the kind hospitality of many citizens who opened their homes and gardens to them during their visit. Seattle's radio garden commentator, Mr. Cecil Solly, and others state that a large increase in the number of visitors may be expected for Spring Garden Week next year.

Those who have come in contact with these enthusiastic visitors realize in a small way what the Spring Garden Week may become as a tourist attraction of major importance. It can become just as important an institution to us as the celebrated Rose Festival is to Portland. Psychologically, gardens in Spring have a stronger appeal than at any other time of the year, and there is no greater attraction to tourists at this season than our Spring flowers. No one will deny that the tourist industry is becoming a more and more important source of revenue to our city. This should stimulate us in making our homes and gardens more attractive. Although members of the Vancouver Island Horticultural Association are pleased with the interest shown this year much more could be accomplished if Spring Garden Week received greater support from the citizens of Victoria.

AORANGI IS DAY BEHIND

Canadian-Australasian Liner
Will Not Reach Victoria
Until Saturday

Owing to slight engine trouble which developed during the present northbound trip to Victoria, the Canadian-Australasian liner Aorangi, Captain T. V. Hill, commander, will be a full day late reaching this port, according to advices received here. Instead of arriving late Thursday or early Friday, the green ship will be expected at William Head on Saturday morning and expected to dock alongside Rihet Piers at 7 a.m.

The Aorangi is carrying one of the biggest lists for some time, having over 400 passengers aboard, the majority of whom are for overland points and Europe.

HYDROGRAPHIC SHIP
Bound for Union Bay for bunker coal, the Hydrographic Survey Ss. William J. Stewart left Victoria at 8 p.m. yesterday. After leaving Union Bay, the ship will continue to the north end of Vancouver Island, and will be away until the steaming coal is exhausted, or about six weeks.

IN ROYAL ROADS
The high wind yesterday morning kept the freighter Blairlogie from docking at Ogden Point Piers. Unable to get alongside, the Blairlogie proceeded to Royal Roads.

and remained there until the wind subsided. She will load lumber for the United Kingdom.

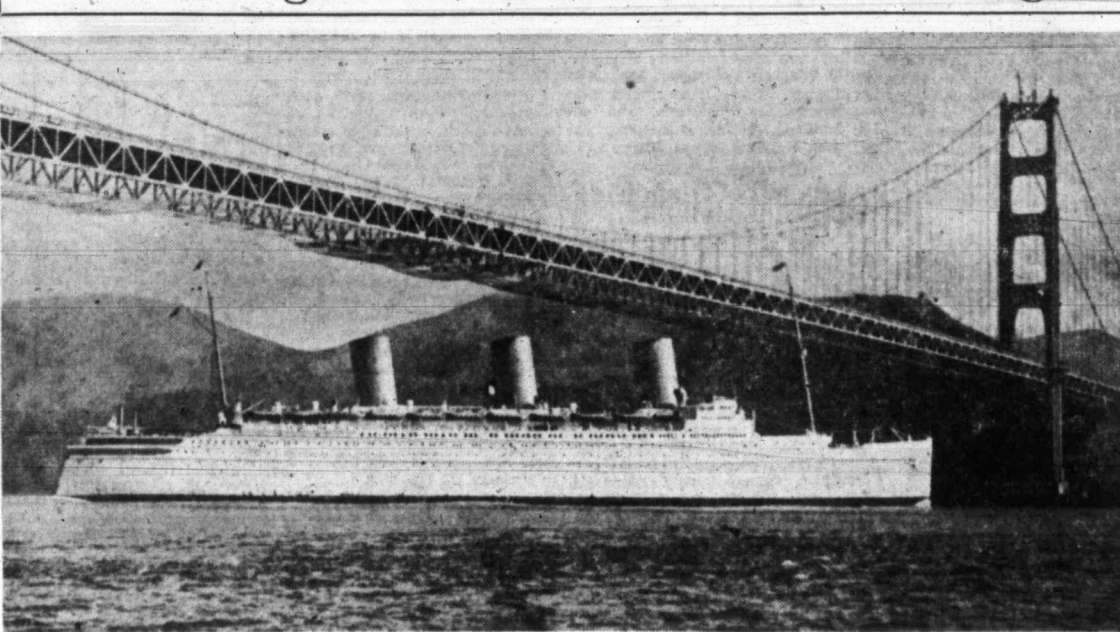

LUMBER VESSELS
Two lumber ships are due at Ogden Point Piers today, according to King Bros. The British motorship Cornish City is due in from the Old Country, and will stow lumber cargo for Australia, while the freighter Embassy is expected in from Crofton and will lift some lumber for the United Kingdom.

GULF ISLANDS
A bus and ferry trip is the offering of Vancouver Island Coach Lines today. Buses will leave the local depot at 9 a.m. for Swartz Bay, where the motorship Cy Peck will be boarded for a cruise through the Gulf Islands. Beaver Point, Port Washington, Galiano Island and Mayne Island will be visited.

FIRST EXCURSIONS
On Coronation Day, May 12, the B.C. Coast Service of the Canadian Pacific Steamships will run an excursion to Seattle, the Ss. Princess Marguerite being selected to make the trip. On the following Saturday, the Canadian Pacific Social and Athletic Club is sponsoring an afternoon's outing across the Strait to Port Angeles.

ENGLAND-BOUND
Matthew Hutchison, for many years city electrician, is today on his way to visit the scenes of his boyhood in the Old Country. He joined the Royal Mail Lines motorship Lochgoin in a Mainland port yesterday, and will reach London by way of the Panama Canal. "Matt" will spend some time in England, Scotland and Ireland before returning to Victoria next Fall.

Great Bridge Provides Thrill for Passengers

One of the biggest thrills for the 431 world-cruise travelers aboard the Canadian Pacific liner Ss. Empress of Britain, was passing under the Golden Gate Bridge at San Francisco, last Friday, as the British steamer to its anchorage in the California port. Despite the lopping off of nine feet from the liner's masts and making the passage at low tide, the captain of the vessel had many an anxious moment, as can be imagined from the above photograph.

LOWEST BID FOR REPAIRS

Portland Firm Will Put Feltre
In Good Shape for $328,167

PORTLAND, Ore., May 4 (P).—The Albina Engine & Machine Works, of Portland, submitted a low bid of $328,167 and guaranteed to complete repairs to the Italian motorship Feltre in 110 days.

Thomas H. White, New York surveyor, announced today.

A demurrage charge of $300 a day for every day over the agreement will be imposed upon the company receiving the award. The underwriters will give a bonus of $150 a day if the work is completed ahead of schedule.

The bids will be forwarded to the underwriters and shipowners for final approval. Other bids included: Yarrow Drydocks, Limited, Victoria, $381,245, ninety-five days; Burrard Drydock Company, North Vancouver, $374,000, ninety-five days.

The Feltre sank in the Columbia River near Prescott last February after a collision with the American freighter Edward F. Luckenbach. She was patched and towed to Portland for drydocking.

AFTERGUARD
FOR RANGER

American Yacht Will Have Physics Professor as Navigator Again

BATH, Me., May 4 (P).—Except for her skipper and navigator, Harold S. Vanderbilt's Ranger will enter the international race wars this summer with an afterguard new to America's Cup competition.

Vanderbilt told Designer W. Starling Burgess, rushing work on the sloop for a May 11 launching, that Zene Bliss, Brown University physics professor, again would be navigator.

Bliss was with Vanderbilt in Rainbow, which beat Endeavour in the last cup contest.

Burgess named the other afterguards as his twenty-eight-year-old collaborator in designing Ranger, Olin J. Stephens; his brother, Roderick Stephens; and Arthur Knapp, Long Island yachtsman.

HEAD-ON COLLISION TO BE INVESTIGATED
MONTREAL, May 4 (P).—Harbor authorities today ordered an inquiry into the head-on collision of the freighters Redriver and Sagana in Montreal harbor on Saturday.

Downbound with a cargo of coal, the lake vessel, Redriver, struck the little coastal vessel, also loaded with coal. Both suffered damaged bows.

Redriver continued to Three Rivers under her own steam, while the Sagana got up in port.

SHANGHAI, May 4 (P).—Japanese-owned cotton mills in China today ordered a 10 per cent general wage increase.

WAGE INCREASES ON STATE LINES

TOKIO, May 4 (P).—The Ministry of Railways today announced wage increases for all employees of state lines of about 3 per cent. The measure was believed to be an attempt to parry an expected demand for 10 to 20 per cent increases.

Three hundred employees of the tramways in Oji, a Tokyo suburb, were locked out today, after they had declared a strike and occupied the company's premises.

Two hundred restaurant employees in Tokyo went on strike in protest against the transfer of a personnel chief.

APPOINTED TO CEYLON

Former Hongkong Governor
Gets Britain's Premier
Colonial Post

Sir Andrew Caldecott, K.C.M.G., O.B.E., former Governor of Hongkong and recently appointed to the Governorship of Ceylon, Britain's premier colonial post, was a passenger arriving here yesterday morning on the Ss. Empress of Japan. Accompanied by Lady Caldecott, he will enjoy a furlough in England before taking up his duties at Colombo next October.

Sir Andrew stated aboard the liner that he had enjoyed his term of office at Hongkong and had made many friends there during the six months he and Lady Caldecott occupied Government House. He would cherish the associations made there and always remember the kindly things said about his administration since he took over the office in December, 1935. He will be succeeded in China by Sir Geoffrey Alexander Stafford Northcote, K.C.M.G., Governor of British Guiana, and will succeed in Ceylon Sir Reginald Edward Stubbs, G.C.M.G., a former Governor of Hongkong.

So popular did Sir Andrew and Lady Caldecott become during their stay in Hongkong, when news of the promotion became public the committees of the China Association, the Hongkong Chamber of Commerce, representatives of the Chinese community, and all the unofficial members of both councils held a meeting and made representations by cable to the Secretary of State for the Colonies asking for the retention of His Excellency as Governor of Hongkong.

MANY POSITIONS

Sir Andrew Caldecott was born in 1884. He was educated at Uppingham and at Exeter College, Oxford, and was appointed a cadet in the Federated Malay States in 1907. The whole of his colonial career has been spent in the Malayan Civil Service. After serving as District Officer at Jelebu, he was appointed Controller of Labor in 1913, and in 1916 became Second Assistant Secretary to the Federal Secretary. Filling a number of other positions, he became Acting British Resident at Negri Sembilan in 1929 and of Selangor in 1931. In 1933 he was appointed Colonial Secretary of the Straits Settlements, a post which he held when he became Governor of Hongkong. He is the author of "History of Jelebu" and numerous articles on Malayan subjects.

On the way home to England across Canada, His Excellency and Lady Caldecott will spend some days at Banff. While the boat was in Victoria, the distinguished visitors spent most of the time ashore, enjoying a drive in company with local friends who welcomed them here when the boat arrived.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 4 (P).—A call for assistance was received today from the Red Stack tug Sea Lion, towing the United States Army dredge Multnomah, but later the tug captain messaged the danger apparently had passed.

The Marine Department of the Chamber of Commerce said a full crew of fifteen was aboard the dredge, and the tug carried fifteen. A coast guard boat put out to help.

In the Interests of the Workers...

The Liberal Government of British Columbia revised and strengthened labor laws and started an upward trend in wages.

In 1936 the purchasing power of British Columbia workers increased by 25 per cent.

The Liberal Government has increased wages in many occupations by stabilizing the minimum wage.

Action of the Government resulted in an increase in wages for British Columbia workers in 1936 from these sources of $14,000,000.

Through its firm policy of enforcing its labor laws, the Department of Labor secured adjustments of arrears of wages to workers who had received less than that to which they were legally entitled to the extent of $60,172.

MUSICIANS IN JOINT RECITAL

Mary Bucklin Hammond, 'Cellist, and Una Calvert, Pianist, Applauded.

Two gifted musicians well known in past years to the concert platform here, but who, to everyone's regret, have been almost complete strangers to local audiences for several seasons, were welcomed back with cordial enthusiasm last night when Mary Bucklin Hammond, 'cellist, and Una Calvert, pianist, appeared in joint recital at the Oak Bay Theatre Hall.

Those who look askance at modern music as being "outside the pale" could bring no such reproach to bear on the programme offered by these two artists for their "Evening of Chamber Music." For this was a completely classical recital, and the listeners, who filled the auditorium, seemed to enjoy it to the utmost, judging by the warmth of their applause. Handel, Saint-Saëns, Beethoven—a most satisfying triad of the great names in composition—supplied the material. And it was all superbly prepared, the readings showing, in each instance, authority, deep musical scholarship, and a fine authenticity of approach that were generously supported by the polished technical equipment of the two performers.

The 'cellist, who has only once played in public here since her period of study in Europe, has a warm, full, sonorous, expressive and very individual tone, and plays at all times with faultless intonation and sensitive expressiveness as well as vitality. The pianist's technique is confident, virile, incisive, with a fine range of tone. Both show virtuoso gifts of no mean capacity. Every one present must have hoped that these two unusually fine artists would henceforth be regular contributors to each season's programme.

The recital included the Handel Sonata in G Minor, for 'cello and piano, in four movements, grave, allegro, sarabande and allegro. There followed the Sammartini 'cello sonata in G Major; the majestic Beethoven piano sonata in G Major, Op. 53 (Waldstein), and, after the intermission, the Beethoven sonata in F Major, Op. 5, No. 1, for 'cello and piano.

Former Victorian Passes to Rest

Word has been received by relatives in Victoria of the death on Monday in Toronto of Mrs. Raymond Bond, daughter of the late Captain and Mrs. Gaudin, pioneer Victorians. As Beatrice Gaudin, she was educated at St. Ann's Convent here and had a host of friends who will regret to hear of her passing.

She is survived by her husband and two daughters, Betty and Patty, in Toronto; two sisters, Mrs. J. S. Harvey, Knapp Island, and Miss Kate Gaudin, Victoria, and one brother, Mr. James Gaudin, who lives in White Horse, Yukon.

Liberal Party in Victoria. I want to say that I approach this election with much greater confidence than ever before. I am pleased to be associated with two such 'good fellows' as Mrs. Hodges and Mr. Strathairn, and I think that perhaps Mrs. Hodges is going to prove the best fellow of us all. I am sure that we can look forward with confidence to the election of four Liberal candidates in Victoria.

Nominated by J. B. Clearihue, K.C., and Alex. Creed, Byron Johnson returned thanks for his selection by acclamation. The Liberal Party after three and a half years of office was more united than ever. He said. Vancouver meetings had been encouraging to the Administration, and return of the Government appeared certain. Mr. Johnson paid tribute to the Minister of Finance, who he said, was "a fine statesman, a fine fellow and one who has the interests of the city, the province and the Dominion well at heart."

Proposed by C. E. Copeland in a sponsor's eulogy that proved the highlight of the convention, Mrs. Hodges' nomination was seconded by Mrs. Julia de Blaquiere. Liberals, Mrs. Hodges said, had been the first to advance women for positions in the Legislature, though Victoria for twenty years has failed to take advantage of that opportunity. Women had justly the feeling of the province had justified themselves as citizens, and in the name of justice and fair

TIMING THE PLAY

The type of hand that recurs over and over again is one in which the declarer is called upon to establish a long side suit and also to pick off a trick or two in a short suit. This problem may be complicated by difficulty in maintaining rigid control of the trump suit itself. In short, just such a hand as the one described below.

Both sides vulnerable.

The bidding at match point duplicate:

East South West North
Pass Pass 1 ♠ Pass
2 ♠ Pass Pass Double
Pass 3 ♠ Pass Pass
3 ♠ 4 ♠ Pass Pass
Double Pass Pass Pass

This bidding was essentially "match-point bidding." At rubber bridge West's opening spade call would be inexcusably light, but at duplicate light third hand opening bids are necessary. When it developed that two spades was as far as the opponents were going, North stepped in with a double. In rubber bridge this delayed double would be strictly for penalties. In duplicate it is technically of the penalty variety, but at the same time may mean that the doubler requires close co-operation from partner.

TODAY'S QUESTION

Mr. Culbertson will discuss this hand in tomorrow's article.

A JO-JOTTE POINTER

When you have a Jo-Jotte hand that will produce forty scoring points for you, then you usually should make a bid. These forty points should be made up of aces, tens and high trumps. You have learned that there are other points scored for "honor melds." But the scoring value of the single cards in your hand is the first consideration. Here are two hands:

1—♠ J Q ♠ A ♦ 10 9 ♠ Q
2—♠ 10 9 8 ♠ 9 7 ♠ K ♠ A

Hand No. 1 totals forty points, if spades are trump, for then the jack becomes the highest spade, worth twenty points; ace and ten are worth ten each. Hand No. 2 will score, if spade trump, fifteen for the nine of spades and ten for the ten of spades, a total of 25. The 10-9-8 sequence counts twenty points, making a grand total of forty-four points. Yet hand No. 2 should be bid, forty points in pay cards. The value of honor melds must not be included in this total.

G. G. McGeer Commissioned—G. G. McGeer, K.C., M.P., will represent the British Columbia Government at the San Francisco Bridge Fiesta, Premier Pattullo announced officially yesterday. No members of the Cabinet will be free to participate in the ceremonial opening of the Golden State's two new bridges, due to the election campaign.

To Leave for West—D. J. Corrigan, secretary of the Canadian Corps of Commissioners at Montreal, telegraphed Lieut.-Col. H. H. B. Cunningham that he and General King would leave for the Coast on May 25 to confer with Lieut.-Col. Cunningham on the formation of a corps in Victoria.

Quintuplet Kittens—A large mother cat at the Spouse & Son fish wharf here yesterday presented dock workers with something of a puzzle when she bore a litter of five kittens, all joined together at the abdomen. The kittens were chloroformed and turned over to the Provincial Museum, where Francis Kermod, director, said the freak occurrence was the first of the kind he had witnessed.

Bishop Officiates—Most Rev. John C. Cody, Bishop of Victoria, officiated at the first anniversary of play should be given a voice in public affairs.

Declaring "political promises are like pie crust, made to be broken," Mrs. Hodges said she had no pledges to give, save that of loyalty to the trust implied by the nomination.

Nominated by H. W. Davey and John Wallace, Alderman W. T. Strathairn recalled his close association with Vancouver Island, as president of the Island Board of Trade.

"I can say that Premier Pattullo and Hon. John Hart have given a square deal to Victoria and to Vancouver Island within the limits of Provincial finances, since the Government went into office three and a half years ago. I will say now that if I am elected, I will do my best to see that Victoria and the Island receive fair treatment in all and every respect," Alderman Strathairn declared.

Mayor Andrew McGavin, Norman W. Whitaker, K.C., and C. E. Whitney-Griffiths, two Liberal nominees; John Wallace (acting president) and Mrs. J. S. Atkins occupied seats on the platform. A three-piece orchestra and community singing led by F. M. McGregor kept delegates entertained during the counting of the ballots and the preliminary seating of ward representatives. Cheers for the four candidates climaxed an enthusiastic rally, concluding at 10:30 p.m.

quate air force defeat of the Italians at Bermeo would have been turned into "a second Guadalajara," a rout like that of the Italians northeast of Madrid in March.

As it was, the officers declared, hundreds of Italians fled down steep hills into the sea and drowned. Passenger liners raced towards Bilbao to evacuate as many refugees as possible from the city whose defenders made ready for a last stand against the approaching insurgents.

BOOKED TO SAIL

More than 4,000 women and children, making up the first mass migration from the Biscayan capital, were booked to sail tonight on the 10,000-ton Spanish liner Habana.

Preparations were made to take 4,000 more children to England on a ship whose identity was kept secret for fear it might be attacked. Several French steamships, with an aggregate passenger capacity of 2,000 made ready at Bordeaux, France, for the run to Bilbao.

There seemed little possibility that many more of the refugee-swollen population, estimated to include 200,000 more than the city's normal 170,000 inhabitants, would be transported to foreign havens.

(For many years Assistant Professor of Household Arts, Teachers College, Columbia University, New York, N.Y.)

You'll call this "bra" costume slip a "find." It's so essentially important for your fitted and flared frocks. It's made at a modest budget price, too.

You won't have to worry about conflicting lines to your outer garment with this one-piece slip with "bra" top. You'll welcome the shadowproof hem at the front for your sheer frocks.

You'll run it up so quickly on the sewing machine, you'll want to make several.

The remnant counters are stacked with suitable lengths of washable crepe silks, satins, nainsook, long cloth and rayon silks at a drastic reduction in cost.

The Illustrated Dressmaking Chart that accompanies the pattern shows step-by-step of the way. Style No. 3039 is designed for sizes 10-12, 14-16 and 20 years.

Size 16 requires 2-8 yards of 39-inch material with 11-2 yards of binding for top of slip.

The Spring and Summer Fashion Book is filled with lovely designs for everyday wear, which are easy and inexpensive to make.

Due to special arrangements made with the manufacturers, The Colonist is glad to announce a reduction in the price of its patterns from 20c to 15c. This price will be effective for all patterns ordered from this date.

Democracy on Trial for Many Cogent Reasons

Dean Quainton Addresses One of Largest Women's Canadian Club Audiences of Year, Showing Merits and Weaknesses of Present System

The weaknesses as well as the merits of democracy, as it is known to the world in its still experimental stage, were ably summarized by Very Rev. C. S. Quainton in his address on "Democracy on Trial," given before the Women's Canadian Club at the Empress Hotel yesterday afternoon. It was one of the biggest meetings of the club's current year, about 650 members and guests filling the hall to capacity.

"To say we believe in democracy means much the same as what we mean when we talk about believing in the Holy Catholic Church—which doesn't exist. It is like the League of Nations, a dream, a hope a prayer," said the Dean. Actually, democracy in practice meant not national solidarity among the people, but the rule of the majority. And while it might be true that the best opinion in connection with the solution of difficult problems would be found, perhaps, among the experts, among the specialists with an exact knowledge, and therefore the minority; it was also true that although the majority was pretty sure not to be quite right, it would be more often nearly right than any particular minority might be.

WHERE IT FAILS Democracy was on trial because it had failed to solve the problem of unemployment; because it had not brought about the breakdown of capitalism; because of the present-day need of national self-preservation.

Mrs. S. J. Willis presided, and Mrs. Allen Campbell moved the vote of thanks. The much-enjoyed musical part of the programme was supplied by Miss Clemency Ord and Miss Phyllis Hick, two thirteen-year-old girls who won Women's Canadian Club trophies at the recent Musical Festival here. The first number being a vocal solo by the former, accompanied by the latter; and the second and third being two piano test pieces with which Miss Phyllis Hick won the senior piano solo class trophy.

Presentation Is Testimony To Musician

Members of the George J. Dyke string orchestra last evening made a presentation to one of their number, Carl Benn, 'cellist, who will leave today for England to continue his musical studies there.

The gift was a handsome engraved cigarette case, which was handed to Mr. Benn by Miss Ellen Brayshaw, leader of the orchestra, during an interval at the weekly practice at the Dominion Academy of Music. Accompanying the gift was a tastefully illuminated and autographed address expressing the members' appreciation of the long and pleasant associations, to which Miss Brayshaw also referred. The recipient, in thanking his friends for their generous remembrance, expressed the hope that the orchestra would keep together under Mr. Dyke's able management.

Mr. Benn's place in the orchestra will be taken by Reg Cooper, and other new members welcomed at the meeting last night were Bert Cartwright and Chris Miller, violins, and Lona-Marie Atfield, 'cellist.

Membership Tea Is Most Successful

The annual membership tea held yesterday afternoon at the Y.W.C.A. was one of the most successful in the association's history, about 200 visitors attending, all of whom were graciously welcomed by Dr. Olga Jardine, convener of the membership committee. Assisting her in receiving were the following members of her committee: Mrs. G. H. Bissell, Mrs. W. N. Gunning, Mrs. J. T. Jones, Miss Norma Macdonald, Miss S. Fraser, Miss Margaret Cook and the Misses Allen and Muriel Aylard.

The lounge of the association's building had been beautifully decorated with bowls of tulips and daffodils, and the tea table had a lovely centerpiece consisting of a Canton china bowl filled with blue-bells and Clara Butt tulips.

Pouring tea during the afternoon were Mrs. B. S. Heisterman, president of the Y.W.C.A. board; Mrs. John Baxter, the second vice-president; Mrs. William Ellis and Miss Kathleen Agnew. The club girls assisted in serving.

Dr. Jardine, in expressing a welcome to the visitors, explained the purposes of membership, and it was gratifying that a large number of new members were enrolled during the afternoon.

REPORTS UPON HARBOR DUES

No Danger of Increased Charges in 1937, Declares J. H. Hamilton

The danger of increased harbor dues, in so far as they affect this port, has been removed for 1937, J. H. Hamilton, secretary of the Merchants' Exchange, Vancouver, told a special meeting of the directors of the Chamber of Commerce when they convened at luncheon in the Empress Hotel yesterday. The speaker pointed out, however, that there was a possibility of lines now serving Victoria discontinuing service at some future date, since the service was not warranted by the value of business under the existing scale of charges.

Mr. Hamilton has recently returned from Ottawa, where he discussed the matter of increased harbor charges, in so far as they affected British Columbia Coast ports, with Hon. C. D. Howe, Minister of Transport. He described the manner in which the brief had been presented and praised the manner in which Hon. Dr. S. F. Tolpelt, M.P., had co-operated.

TWO POINTS STRESSED
In placing the matter before Mr. Howe, the Western representative stressed two points:

1. That the imposition of new charges, without seeking the opinion of shipping affected, was unfair.

2. That, by their nature, the new charges were unfair and discriminatory.

Since he had been able to prove to the minister that the new scale of charges would bring in twice the amount which the Government was seeking to obtain from harbors annually, considerable reductions had been obtained, he said. "These charges will not be imposed again, without first consulting Coast shipping circles," Mr. Howe had told him.

MONTS, France, May 4 (AP).—The Duke of Windsor, reunited with Mrs. Wallis Simpson in the beautiful Chateau de Candé, tonight chose to keep their marriage plans a secret until after the coronation of his brother.

The Duke and Mrs. Simpson were reunited this afternoon after a separation of five months and one day. Edward arrived at 1:45 p.m. He had not seen his fiancée since the night of December 3, when she left England for France.

The duke started on his journey from Austria late yesterday, after Mrs. Simpson's divorce from Ernest Simpson was made final in London. He traveled in an ordinary compartment with his equestrian. His dog, Snooky, slept in the wash basin.

MRS. JACKSON IS MEDALIST IN B.C. GOLF MEET

Hubbell Credited With Nineteenth Straight Victory

Peerless Southpaw of Giants Equals Record Established by Tim Keefe and Rube Marquard—
Rookie Trims Cardinals—Cubs Triumph—
Yankees Win Behind Lefty Gomez

NATIONAL LEAGUE

NEW YORK, May 4 (AP).—Carl Owen Hubbell, peerless southpaw of the New York Giants, emerged from the showers late today to find himself credited with his third consecutive victory of the current season—his nineteenth in succession over a two-year stretch—as the National League champions beat the cellar-dwelling Cincinnati Reds, 7-6.

The Giants staked their ace pitcher to the seven runs in three frames with a brace of homers by Dick Bartell and Hubbell's own two hits in a big third-inning rally.

The screwball master lost all but one run of his advantage after pitching hitless ball for four innings and finally was knocked out of the box in the seventh. He was touched for nine hits, but fanned ten Redlegs. He went to the showers for the first time since last July 25, when Cincinnati also was the cause. Tall, right-handed Harry Gumbert retired the last seven Red batsmen in succession to save the game. The Giants advanced to a second-place tie with the St. Louis Cardinals.

On the anniversary of a heart-breaking 1-0 setback at the hands of the Reds just one year ago, Hubbell was hard pressed to keep his winning streak intact. By registering his nineteenth in a row, in league competition, he sustained a record comparable to Tim Keefe and Rube Marquard, also Giants. These two, in 1888 and 1912, respectively, hung up nineteen straight for the mark. Technically, Hubbell cannot be bracketed with them. The Oklahoma screwball king dropped a decision to the Yankees in the last world series, but has not been beaten by National League opposition since July 13 last.

Cubs Trim Phillies

PHILADELPHIA, May 4 (AP).—Chicago picked four National League pitchers for nineteen hits and a 14-to-7 victory today before 3,000 fans.

Leo Norris of the Phillies came within one of ying the mark of chances accepted by second basemen in the National League when he accepted seven putouts and eight assists. The error kept him from setting a modern record for the senior loop.

Rookie Beats Cards

BOSTON, May 4 (AP).—Lou Pette, St. Paul rookie right-hander, boosted the Boston Bees into the first division today by holding the St. Louis Cardinals to three hits while his mates battered four of the Gas House hurlers for fifteen safeties and an 8-1 victory.

American League

DETROIT, May 4 (AP).—The world champion Yankees got off to an auspicious start on the first Western trip today. Lefty Gomez, their stylish left-hander, held the Detroit Tigers to four hits as the New Yorkers won, 10-1, and went into a first-place tie with Mickey Cochrane's crew.

The champions' Italian strong-arm squad—Joe Di Maggio, Frank Crosetti and Tony Laverne—were the leaders in the victory. Between them they gathered half of the fourteen hits and drove in six runs. Di Maggio's bat provided the impetus for four.

Red Sox Triumph

ST. LOUIS, May 4 (AP).—The Boston Red Sox slugged out a 11-6 victory over the Browns today in the first of a three-game series, with home runs for both sides helping the heavy scoring.

The Browns used three pitchers in a vain attempt to stop the rampaging Red Sox.

Boston called on two pitchers, Wes Ferrell being driven to the showers in the fourth after Beau Belle hit a home run.

Pulls Triple Steal

CLEVELAND, May 4 (AP).—With the bases loaded in the eleventh inning, the Washington Senators staged a sensational triple steal today to break a 5-all tie and go on to a 7-5 victory over the Cleveland Indians.

Ben Chapman, wily Senator outfielder, stole home and his teammates, John Lewis and Al Simmons, darted safely to third and second. Washington followed the spectacular play with four singles and a double—the latter by Chapman on his second time up in the inning—to corral seven runs in the inning. Wyatt had replaced Fisher on the mound for Cleveland when the "grand larceny" of bases occurred.

The Senators reached Harder, Heving, Fisher, Wyatt and Hudlin for a total of twenty hits, while Cleveland batsmen found Newsum and Deshong for an even dozen, one a triple by Trosky.

OAKLAND, May 4 (AP).—Sacramento pounded two Oakland pitchers for fourteen hits to record a 5-to-3 victory today and retain their Coast League leadership.

The Solons scored all their runs off Floyd Olds, who was taken from the mound after Douglas batted for him in the seventh. The Solons were without the services of their star slugger, Nick Culp, who injured his thumb in last week's series with the Missions.

Bangtails Match Stride Down Stretch

Diplopia, friends, means seeing double, and that was the sensation of turf fans who saw the thrilling finish of the Yannathan Trial Handicap at the Moonee Valley Track, Melbourne, Australia. Beau Roi (outside) and Gold Sreak, ordinarily dead ringers for each other, matched stride for stride as they thundered down the stretch. A sudden surge forward gave the race to Beau Roi by a slim margin.

brick, who trimmed the British Columbia champion in the cup match the day before. On the fifth hole the Oak Bay player snatched five balls out of bounds, and then on the seventh put several more down on the beach. Then there's Mrs. R. Bell, Vancouver, who placed five tee shots in the water and on the beach at the fifth and ended up with an eight, believe it or not. Dorothy Fletcher had her troubles, but they came on the greens. Ten times she three-putted and still came home with a 98. Mary Mackenzie-Grieve blew herself to a 98 after being all over the course.

Governing Body Votes Down the Golf Club Limit

ST. ANDREWS, Scotland, May 4 (AP).—A proposal to limit to fourteen the number of golf clubs permitted each player in tournaments was defeated today when it failed to secure the requisite two-thirds majority at a meeting of the Royal and Ancient Club, governing body of the sport.
A recent poll of British golfers revealed that less than 2 per cent carried more than fourteen clubs.
The United States Golf Association adopted the fourteen-club limit last January, effective January 1, 1938.

GIVES ADDRESS ON PEACE TOPIC

Madame H. M. Archibald Gives Views at Meeting Of Victoria Gyros

Declaring that the Anglo-Saxon nations were responsible for the peace of the world, Madame H. M. Archibald addressed members of the Gyro Club on the subject, "Is Peace Worth While?" at their weekly luncheon in the Empress Hotel on Monday.

"People should not think of Germany in terms of Hitler," the speaker said, and quoted from a German article advocating peace between Germany and England: "It is easy for Canadians to take a detached view of the European situation, but the people of Europe want the right to work with a certain measure of security, thus causing unrest in many European countries," Madame Archibald asserted.

By educating themselves by reading authorities on the subject, people could influence their representatives in the government to demand higher ideals in the cause of peace. The ideal of peace is logical and can be brought about, she stated.

"There is great harmony in the British Empire. Why could this not be applied to the world at large?" the speaker asked. In conclusion, Madame Archibald urged the members, as a club and individually, to devote some time, thought and energy to the cause of peace.

The speaker was introduced by Major H. Cuthbert Holmes and thanked by Bert Colbrough, chairman. Thomas Watkins was welcomed as a new member.

Holding Head May Relieve Headache

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J., May 4 (P).—When a fellow with a splitting headache holds his head, it may help his headache a lot. Mrs. J. R. Graham and H. G. Wolff, of the New York Hospital, told the American Society for Clinical Investigation.

They reported the throbbing pain of migraine headache was caused by throbbing blood vessels in the head, and that by holding a finger on the offending artery, on the temple, behind the ear, or on the side of the neck, the pain could be lessened.

CHAPTER XLII

"You'll like this kid, Lucille," Ronny told her as he parked the car. "His name is David Brooke, and though he's as big as I am, he isn't yet nineteen. His father is one of the really first-rate lawyers in New York. They live in one of the snootiest hives on Park Avenue, but you won't find David's nose any higher than any other six-footer's. He thought, but did not say, 'And he has a sister with silky golden hair and lovely contemptuous eyes who messed up my life not so very long ago and probably would mess it up again if I hadn't learned enough to keep my distance.'"

As they started across the street, Lucille said, "Who's the girl?" The reflected glare on the windshield blurred the face of the girl who sat behind it. Before Ronny could answer, David turned his head, saw then and came stalking toward them, wearing the broadest of grins.

"Hi, Editor!"

"No impudence, you gadabout. Been waiting long?"

David was introduced to Lucille. A faint smile quivered on Sandra's pale lips. She said, very quietly, "Hello, Ronny. . . Could you show us where the hotel is? I—I'm so tired of riding in this car, I ache."

Ronny stared, stupidly. This wasn't Sandra. It couldn't be. Good heavens! . . . she was white! He took her hand at last, smiled mechanically, and turned to Lucille.

"Bring David along in my car, will you, Lucille?" He was so confused that he neglected to introduce them. Starting David's car, Ronny said, "The nearest thing to a hotel in this town is on the first street on your right—about a quarter of a mile down. My mother runs it."

They did not talk during the short ride. As they got out of the car, Sandra said, "I was sorry to hear about your mother's fall, Ronny. She's much improved, I hope."

"A good deal more than any of us thought possible a few weeks ago, thanks," he said a moment later. "You aren't a stranger to her, Sandra."

"And realized that in those seven words was an implication he had not intended, a tie with the past, a suggestion that what he had told his mother about Sandra Brooke would make Sandra all the more welcome in this house. But a moment later he decided she had not even heard, for she said:

"I must get to bed as quickly as possible, Ronny. Will you explain to your mother that I'm frightfully tired? Though it isn't only that I'm tired, I'm—not very well."

Ronny's first thought when they were driving away from The Guardian office had been that she was desperately ill and should never have been permitted to leave the hospital.

"Lucille is a trained nurse," he said. "She's staying here to look after Mom and she'll take you under her wing without waiting to be asked. I hope you can stay in indefinitely, Sandra. This place is good for almost anything."

"Oh, but I can't—as much as I'd like to. We'll have to leave some time tomorrow."

But when David went back to New York a week later, he went alone. Sandra remained in bed the first four days. She was incredibly weak, ate almost nothing and slept very little.

On the afternoon of the fourth day Ronny was sitting by the bed pretending to read, though actually there because Lucille insisted Sandra should not be left alone. With-out any preliminaries whatever, Sandra began to talk to him—about Bryant Wilson and how they had deceived her at the hospital.

While Ronny sat there, helpless, digging his nails into his palms, she went over every detail of that tragic afternoon on the Water Bug, seeing it all as distinctly and as vividly, he knew, as though that harrowing experience had taken place an hour before. And then she lay very still, her eyes closed.

She said at last, "If I hadn't gone out with Bryant that day, he would be alive now, Ronny. And I went only because I was unhappy about

— She paused. "There's so much I can't tell you, Ronny." Studying his hands, Sandra said, "We don't do things because we want to do them, Sandra. We do them because a hundred thousand circumstances combine to make us do them. Bryant died exactly when, where and as it was determined he should die before either of you were born." Afterwards, he told himself, "Was that any way to talk to a sick girl? You didn't even believe what you were saying; you were just trying to invent some fuzzy theory to make her feel she was in no way responsible for what happened."

Which was quite true, and, curiously enough, Sandra seemed to find some comfort in what he had said.

She was definitely improved next morning.

"She slept soundly all night," Lucille told David and Ronny that evening, "and this morning she wanted to get up at once. I don't know what happened, but it was as if something had been weighing her down and she had suddenly managed to get from under it." She said to David then, "I wish we could persuade her to stay here for a few weeks. She needs rest and quiet, a change to get her strength back."

David shrugged. "So do I, but it's up to her, of course."

What Today Means

"TAURUS"

If May 5 is your birthday, the best hours for you on this date are from 9:15 to 11:15 a.m., from 1:15 to 3:15 p.m. and from 7:15 to 9:15 p.m. The danger periods are from 7:15 to 9:15 a.m., from 3:15 to 7:15 p.m. and from 9:15 to 11:15 p.m.

There probably will be a tendency on the part of people this day to talk entirely too much, and to say too little of any real value. You may have the opportunity, before the day is over, to say something worthwhile that will help someone who needs encouragement. Accidents can be avoided this day, only by handling carefully anything that can cause them. Chemicals, especially, must not be subjected to carelessness. Do not ignore messages, letters or telephone calls, because trouble may result. Many erroneous impressions may be formed this day through the misuse of words or gestures, so be on your guard regarding both. This is an auspicious day for social gatherings, as well as visiting. Married and engaged couples, as well as sweethearts, should find many congenial thoughts and activities that will add materially to their happiness.

If a woman and May 5 is your birthday, by being thoroughly unselfish you cannot only make your own life, but the lives of many others very happy. You must never permit yourself to become self-centred. You ought to have some artistic skill that can be profitably used. You have, most likely, some ambitious aspiration, which you should allow nothing to discourage. Your courage will help you break through any obstacles that might seem insurmountable on your road to success, so persevere. Through good reports about you, many things may be made possible. If you have social longings, they probably will be satisfied. You ought to be very successful as a dietitian, writer, trained nurse, office executive, broker or educator. The chances are you will marry well.

The child born on May 5 can have great things expected of it. Usually gifted either artistically or intellectually, children born on this date generally grow up to be outstanding characters. Their intellectual development frequently occurs late in their teens.

If a man and May 5 is your natal day, kindly consideration and charitable deeds probably will endear you to many people. As a clergyman, missionary, actor, lecturer, author, manufacturer or salesman you may make a substantial livelihood, as well as a worthwhile name for yourself.
